

Matribhasaha, Shiksha aur Vikash

A National Seminar was organised on “Matribhasaha, Shiksha aur Vikash” by the I.Q.A.C. of the college on 19th Dec. 2015.

The issue was of serious concern and the I.Q.A.C. of the college felt that effective medium of imparting education and training to the students could be delivered better in the mother language. With this perspective in mind it was decided by the IQAC that a seminar on the above subject should be held by inviting scholars and intellectuals of various languages and regions. The seminar was a great success as there were distinguished experts from such languages as Tamil, Marathi, Punjabi, Koshali, Bengali, Kurukh, Nagpuria, Maithili and some other languages. Distinguished scholars participated in the seminar as resource persons and delegates from various parts of the country.

Among the resource persons those who participated were:

- (i) DR. Joga Singh, Former Head Dept. of Linguistics & Punjabi Lexicography Punjabi University, Patiala who was the key note presenter.
- (ii) Prof. Anuj Lugun --- Dept. of Oriental Studies, Central University of Bihar, Bodh Gaya.
- (iii) Dr. Rajesh Kumar --- Head P.G. English, Vinoba Bhave University, Hazaribag.
- (iv) Dr. Girdhari Ram Ganju --- Dept. of Tribal Studies, Ranchi University, Ranchi.
- (v) Dr. Golok Banerjee --- P.G. Dept. of Bengali, P.K.R.M. College, Dhanbad.
- (vi) Sri. Aazhi Senthil Nathan --- Linguist from Chennai.
- (vii) Dr. Saket Sahu --- Koshali language activist, Odissa.
- (viii) Dr. Dipak Pawar from the University of Mumbai and many other language experts from Bihar and Jharkhand were present.

The Seminar was idea packed and after churning of ideas mostly people were unanimous that it would be in the national interest that dissemination of information and teachings of skills could be delivered better, if the medium of teaching in higher education could be mother language.

The organising secretary of the seminar was Dr. Sanjay Prasad, H.O.D., Department of Economics.
